Three-Day Auction in Verden

340 foals and 20 broodmares put up for auction

Verden. The 35th Elite Foal and Broodmare Auction will be held in Verden from August 21 – 23, 2009. 340 Hanoverian foals and 20 broodmares will be put up for auction in the Niedersachsenhalle in Verden from Friday to Sunday. Arrival and presentation of foals will be on the respective day of the auction.

340 of approx. 3,500 presented foals in total were selected for the auction. The auction collection includes 147 fillies and 193 colts with first-class pedigrees. State stud stallion Dancier has certainly a monopoly position as the young stallion is the sire of 25 foals in this collection. Neustadt/Dosse state stud stallion Quaterback presents 14 foals at the Verden auction, just like Fürst Nymphenburg, standing at the Celle National State Stud and owned by Freiherr von Fircks. This year's Elite collection features foals of lots of different top-class stallions like For Edition, Quintender, Contendro, Sir Donnerhall, Soliman de Hus and Cassini II.

20 broodmares, part of them awarded state premium candidate or state premium mare, will also be auctioned off. The collection includes 17 in-foal mares and is complemented by three two-year-old mares with modern pedigree and of perfect riding horse type.

The auction weekend starts on Friday, August 21, with the arrival and presentation of foals and the sale of the first third of the foal collection. This schedule is complemented on Saturday by the sale of the second third of the Elite foals and of the broodmares. On Sunday, the 35th Elite Foal Collection will finish with the sale of the last third of the collection.
