Second Victory for Family of St.Pr.St. Carina

Impressive mares at the Herwart von der Decken-Show

Verden. It is the second time that the three daughters of St.Pr.St. Carina won the Herwart von der Decken-Prize as best mare family at the Verband's Central Mare Show. The mare family was presented by Hannes Brüning from Ochtmannien. State premium mare Red Chili by Rotspoon, state premium mare Faconnable by Fürst Heinrich and state premium candidate Red Hot Chili by Rotspoon already won this prize in 2007.

State premium candidate Harmonie by Hochadel/Londonderry (breeder and exhibitor: Hans-Henning v. d. Decken, Stade) was the best dressage mare. State premium candidate Baquita by Balou du Rouet/Argentinus (breeder: Heinrich Wecke, Stadthagen, exhibitor: Bernfried Erdmann, Wallenhorst) won the division of show jumping mares. Champion in the division of halfbred mares was state premium candidate Loreen by Lauries Crusador xx/Daidalos (breeder: Klaus Ludzuweit, Bentwisch, exhibitor: Mathieu Beckmann, Wettringen).

98 mares and 11 families competed at the Verband's Central Mare Show, named after the former chairman Herwart von der Decken. There were perfect conditions when the mares presented all their qualities in front of the approx. 1000 spectators. The show jumping mares displayed their skills during free jumping under the open sky. Jan Lüneburg and Tim Peters from the Holstein Breed Society, Dr. Axel Brockmann – manager of the Celle National State Stud, Hermann Jürgen Rump, Hartmut Wilking and Hanover's breeding manager Dr. Werner Schade were the judges.
