

01/2025
Verden, January 16, 2025
BZ

Starting signal for the new auction year

Riding horses from the January Online Auction have arrived in Verden

Verden. The starting signal for the new auction year has been given: The candidates for the January Online Auction have arrived at the Hannoveraner Verband's facilities. There are 49 young dressage horses, some already successful in competitions, and 18 show jumping specialists waiting for new owners. The auction of the riding horses will take place online. Test ride appointments can be made now, and bids can be submitted starting Sunday, 19 January. The final bidding process for the riding horses will begin on Saturday, 25 January, at 2 pm CET.

Professional riders appreciate them, amateurs love them – the collection at the Verden Online Auction on 25 January. And this is no coincidence, as it offers the right horse for every rider. Dressage, show jumping, and leisure riders will get their money's worth thanks to the varied selection. With personalized advice, the auction horses can be inspected during daily training sessions until 25 January and tried out by appointment.

The auction year will be opened by Vegas Devine H. The daughter of Valverde/Don Frederic (breeder and exhibitor: Frank Horn, Bremerhaven) is a top-performing dressage horse with fantastic basic gaits and carries the head number one. On the Hannoveraner Verband's auction website, www.verdener-auktion-online.com, each individual auction horse is presented with photos, videos, and all the important information about the horse.