From Foal to Grand Prix

A unique opportunity for anyone interested in dressage horses.

Randbøll. What to look for when selecting foals and young horses with Grand Prix potential? Answers to this and many other questions will be provided on Thursday, 6th February, at a unique and exceptional event. This event is organised by the Hannoveraner Club Denmark in cooperation with Randbøll Dressage Academy at their new facility (formerly Blue Hors).

An expert panel, including Olympic bronze medallist Nathalie zu Sayn-Wittgenstein (with her home-bred horse Digby), as well as Lennart Lindberg and Cecilie Ventzel Jensen, who jointly run the Equinito Veterinary Clinicat at Randbøll, will guide attendees through the various aspects of breeding and raising successful dressage horses. The focus will range from recognising the potential of young horses to training them into well-educated and victorious dressage horses. Foals, young horses, and ridden horses will be showcased, excellently presented by Sophia Obel and Dennis Fisker. Moreover, this event offers a unique opportunity to learn about the vision of the Randbøll Dressage Academy and its mentoring programme, as well as its young horse division.

Tickets: The ticket price is 200 DKK per person (members of Hannoveraner Verband can register online at DKK 150). Headset translation will be available if required.
