Hanoverian Auction Collection Online Verden Auction in July

Verden. On Saturday, 20 July, 58 top-class riding horses will be auctioned in Verden. The collection of 38 dressage horses and 20 show jumpers is already online at verdener-auktion.de. Preparation time and training already start on July 8th.

The Hannoveraner Verband presents a carefully selected auction collection. Not only professional riders will find what they are looking for, but also amateur and leisure riders can discover ideal partners for sport and leisure. Some of the auction horses have dual talent and can meet both dressage and show jumping requirements. Training as an eventing horse is also conceivable for these horses.

The daily auction training will take place from 9 to 19 July. The auction in the Niedersachsenhalle will begin on Saturday, 20 July, at 2 pm.
